

GREEN COUNTY

Green County is located in south central Kentucky. Greensburg is the county seat. The county is named for Revolutionary War hero General Nathanael Greene, but the reason why the final E is missing is unknown. Green County has a population of 11,065 which has dropped nearly 2% since 2010. In 1804, a brick building replaced an earlier structure, and while no longer operational, it stands in the Downtown Greensburg Historic District as the oldest courthouse building in the commonwealth.

What makes us healthy?

Many factors combine together to affect the health of individuals and communities. Whether people are healthy or not, is determined by their circumstances and environment. To a large extent, factors such as where we live, the state of our environment, genetics, our income and education level, and our relationships with friends and family all have considerable impacts on health, whereas the more commonly considered factors such as access and use of health care services often have less of an impact.
