WAYNE COUNTY

Wayne County is located in South Central Kentucky, on the Tennessee State Line. The population is 20,716. Monticello is the county seat for Wayne County. Wayne County is a tourist destination because of its location on Lake Cumberland and is known as the "Heart of Lake Cumberland". It provides 1,200 miles of shoreline and 63,000 acres of water. Lake Cumberland has increased the manufacturing of houseboats resulting in Wayne County being named the "House Boat Capital of the World". Wayne County is also home to the Historic Site of the Battle of Mill Springs that took place during the Civil War in 1863. Mill Springs is on the National Register of Battlefields.

What makes us healthy?

Many factors combine together to affect the health of individuals and communities. Whether people are healthy or not, is determined by their circumstances and environment. To a large extent, factors such as where we live, the state of our environment, genetics, our income and education level, and our relationships with friends and family all have considerable impacts on health, whereas the more commonly considered factors such as access and use of health care services often have less of an impact.
